Pleasant Social at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas-Local Basketball Team-Brief Notes.

C. Edward Douglas entertained a party of friends at his home on Hick-ory street last Friday evening which was much enjoyed by those present. One of Mrs. Douglas' delicious oyster chawders was served. The dining room was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, the centerpiece being a model of the Stebbins-Geynet aeroplane, lighted with electric lights. During the dinner hour modern sero-planes were discussed, and following the banquet piano selections were rened by James Service with vocal so, by William Pitcher and John W Hill, Banjo accompaniments were give Surprised on Birthday.

A quick capture of a young Italian who, it is alleged, had used a razor on his companion in Willimantic, was made here about 12.30 o'clock this morning with the assistance of the carcrew of the electric which brought him to town. He answers to the description of the fellow wanted and he was behind the bars in the local police station while the Willimantic authorities were looking about for him.

When the last car from Willimantic arrived here about 12.30, the car crew, knowing of the cutting affray in Willimantic, turned over a young Italian to Policeman Smith at Franklin square. He got on at Park street in Willimantic and had a suit case, a pair of clothes, a pair of shoes under his arm besides an overcoat and an undercoat in addition to those he was wearing. He was taken to police station, where Captain Linton had him searched. In his hip pocket was found a razor and

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure For It.

Catarrh of the atomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, head-aches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach, could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and ob stinate trouble is found in a treat-ment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared. disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuarf's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that health appetite and thorough digestion will appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.
